

Code of Conducts for MWA members and all visitors

MWA management expects all members and visitors to be mindful of the following Code of conducts and rules of entry in our premises.

- Respect the teachings of Ahl-E-Bait.
- Respect the rights and dignity of others.
- Always conduct relationships free of deception, manipulations, exploitation or intimidation.
- Maintain support in our nominated roles at MWA and sensibly attend to our physical, spiritual, mental, and emotional well-being.
- Examine your own actions and intentions subjectively to ensure that our behavior promotes the welfare of the community and demonstrates the strong morale traditions of MWA and Islam.
- Promptly report incidents of ethical misconduct by anyone to Management.
- MWA members are prohibited from speaking in a manner that is insulting or degrading. Everyone is expected to refrain from swearing or use of bad-mannered language
- No shouting, abusing or humiliation of anyone at or around the center.
- No smoking on the imam bargah premises except in the designated area behind the ladies hall.
- Keep your imam bargah clean at all times.
- Keep an eye on your kids for their safety and wellbeing.
- Bear in mind the imam bargah is in a residential area. Please park your cars legally and refrain from disturbing the surrounding residents.

Thank you for your co-operation.

MWA Executive Committee,
Muhammadi Welfare Association, Kemps Creek